QAI/CIA/Gen/2023/02

3rd November 2023

Transition of the change in name of the accreditation division from 'Centre for Laboratory Accreditation (CLA)' to 'Centre for International Accreditation (CIA)'

In view of the expansion of accreditation services to include other accreditation standards, it was decided to change the name of the accreditation division from CLA to CIA. It does not have any affect on the operation of accreditation services. Accreditation Certificate and Scope of Accreditation issued before 30th November 2023 with the name Centre for Laboratory Accreditation (CLA) shall be valid till the expiry of the accreditation certificate.

This transition shall be completed by 30th November 2025.

Such change shall also be reflected in all other documents published by QAI CIA by 15 December 2023.
